

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates.

Further concentration of media ownership would impede our democratic process. We need a diversity of voices and viewpoints in the media. Concentrations only serves the corporate interests, not the public's.